

Public Agency Training Council Field Training Officer Certification

A professional training, education, and certification program offered by Public Agency Training Council (PATC). Successful completion of certification requirements will designate the attendee as a certified Field Training Officer through Public Agency Training Council.

Mission:

To provide public safety practitioners who specialize in on-the-job training the opportunity to gain recognition for their education and professional dedication to the field training concept. Field training develops new employees into professional and ethical members of the organization. Agencies lacking a properly functioning field training program agencies are open to discredit and liability. A properly organized, supervised, and functioning field training program is critical to the development of an agency.

Purpose:

- To provide public safety agencies with a training and education program that will enhance the performance of field training.
- To encourage and facilitate continued education and learning in the essential agency function.
- To assist agencies in placing the proper emphasis on post-academy and on-the-job assessment tools.
- To provide Field Training Officers with the skills necessary to adequately train new employees.

Certification Validity:

Certification will be valid for two years. The successful candidate will receive special recognition for this achievement.

What you will receive upon completion:

- A certificate declaring status as a Certified Field Training Officer
- Three month free trial membership to Agency360 Field Training Software

Testing Requirement:

Certification will require each candidate to attend PATC "How to be an Effective Field Training Officer" course and successfully pass the associated written and practical tests.

Re-Certification:

Graduates of the certification program who desire to maintain current status as a certified Field Training Officer you will be required to attend one PATC Field Training Officer related training program during the 2-year validity period. Courses include;

- Advanced Field Training Officer Course
- Leadership for the FTO
- FTO Refresher
- Supervising and Managing the FTO Program

Training Seminar How to Be An Effective Field Training Officer Certification

Instructor:
Steven Kellams

Steven Kellams is a Captain and field training expert for the Bloomington Police Department. Captain Kellams attended Indiana University from 1987 to 1991. In 1989 he graduated from the Indiana University Police Academy. In 1991 he was hired by the Bloomington Police Department and was assigned to night shift. During that time he has been a breath-test operator, bike patrol officer, field training officer, senior field training officer, and field training manager. He has also served the department as Civil Disturbance Unit Commander and Special Investigations Unit Commander. He is currently assigned as the Detective Division Commander. In 2000 Captain Kellams was instrumental in redesigning the field training program for the Bloomington Police Department and has taught that program to hundreds of departments throughout Indiana and the United States. He has also instructed on field training issues at the national level when he presented courses at the 2002, 2009, 2010, and 2011 National Association of Field Training Officers conference in Ann Arbor, Michigan; Madison, Wisconsin; Denver, Colorado; and Phoenix, Arizona. In 2000 Captain Kellams was elected state director for the Indiana Chapter of the National Association of Field Training Officers. In 2005 he was elected to the Executive Board of the National Association of Field Training Officers and in 2008 he was the National President of NAFTO. In 2005 Captain Kellams was named Monroe County Officer of the Year for his work with the Bloomington Police Departments Field Training Program. Captain Kellams is a certified Indiana Law Enforcement Academy training instructor and teaches courses in Standardized Field Sobriety Tests, domestic violence, officer safety, firearms, civil disturbance, and field training.
